Rated 5 / 5 stars2011-01-31 11:56:30 The ghost train or club I love this game, i agree with the look and gore, but it is very good game i play this, nd i play it but the way i play this game is a littel bit different from the "ordinary" game is that the player is not always invisible until the player gets "hit" by the ghost, the player gets hit and the player goes back into the invisible house and once the player goes into the invisible house, they can't get back into the invisible house it's a bit hard sometimes, but overall a very good game i reccomend to all the Fatal frame fans and all the people who like games on the ps2. Rated 5 / 5 stars2010-12-27 17:01:36 A great PS2 game This game is awesome. People call it a Fatal Frame game because of the music, which is true. However, it isn't the main player, and is more of a bonus. The main thing this game offers is a cool story and an epic atmosphere. It has some very dark and eerie sections with some blood and gore. It has that realy authentic Japanese feel to it, which makes it very fun. It has some good gameplay, and if you like the game you can go around using the "ghost trains" as a mode of transportation! This game definitely deserves a 9 out of 10. 5 out of 10, only because it has some irritating negatives. The monsters are a bit repetitive, and there are only

Final Fantasy 10 is an RPG that takes place in Ivalice, in the fictional kingdom of Lucis. It follows the story of humanity's battle against the Dimensional Dragons who have taken over the kingdom. The browser-based video game project developed by Roll7 Entertainment, FMV Genesis, and Powerhoof Studios, allows players to interact with characters, locations, and items in the game using camera-enabled webcams. Because of its unusual timeline, which pits the protagonists in the present rather than the past, the game can be considered a
