PARK CITY, Utah — Defending the Best International Feature Filmmaker Award, the writer-director of "Little Men" told a packed house at the Sundance Film Festival that he went to the University of Southern California to be a filmmaker, not a lawyer. (Reuters) | January 27, 2013, 7:31 PM Free VPN Servers for Linux. FoXE-Port de Chambre à Chambre (A&S) - Studio de Animation Dessin 3D FERET.2018. Awhile back, Dubnoff gave us a heads up on a new project entitled "FoXE," which if the name of the film isn't a tip off enough, has a certain John Hughes feel to it. Dubnoff says that the film has a fairly light sci-fi bent to it; one in which the film's protagonist discovers a notebook with her name written in blood, but it could also be compared to something like "Harold & Maude." "FoXE" is looking to be a fairly straight forward story that will also be taking a different approach to existing science-fiction properties; Dubnoff says the main character will be fleeing some sort of post-apocalyptic future, and says that the film will essentially take place in her own subconscious, and that it will be a film with a story about a man and a woman rather than a story about technology and robots. The film is using the crowdfunding site Kickstarter to gather funds for its pre-production, and has already reached 6d1f23a050
