under the direct deposit program, funds will be available within 3-5 business days; if you choose not to participate in the direct deposit program, you will receive your refund immediately. if there is a wait for an electronic transfer of funds you will be notified of the wait, but

the wait is usually less than 3 days. if you have questions about the treasury offset program (top) or the notice you received from the u.s. department of the bureau of the fiscal service-debt management, contact the u. treasury offset program (top) call center at 1-800-304-3107. many state and federal agencies offset debts through top. the notice you received from the department of the bureau of the fiscal service-debt management will outline the name of the state agency (or agencies) that requested the offset of your federal income tax refund, along with contact information for those agencies. a letter is sent for each offset. u.s.

citizens and aliens residing in the united states can have their wages, salary, and tips reported to the internal revenue service (irs) by their employer. in order to report their wages and tips on a federal income tax return, u. citizens and aliens who are employed by a u. employer must have a federal employer identification number (ein) issued by the irs.

an ein is a unique identification number that employers use to report federal income taxes. it is used to identify each employer, and not the individual employee, on tax return form w-2. this number must be used as an employer identification number when filing a federal income tax return on the information return (form 941, 940, 943, or 942) for the year being reported and cannot be used to identify the employee's own return. this number is filed with the employer's w-2. 5ec8ef588b
