madeira has always been a favorite island of mine, i could always tell the moment i walked on it, i was going to love it. this scenery had me at hello, the layout is great, the hills, and valleys are perfect for various styles of flying, and the island is great looking. with our release we have brought the island up to date for fsx and fsx: steam edition, it has been improved for us since the release, and we have also made it more challenging. we have worked extremely hard to make sure that every aspect of the scenery is enhanced, our textures have been improved for all areas, but especially the runway and the terminal area, all buildings have been updated, new buildings have been added, and the terrain has been worked on hard to ensure it is as good as possible, so much so that we are actually in the process of adding a second runway and terminal building, a second air-bridge has been added, and there is even a new commercial runway. we have also added lots of new objects for you to see, and we are now working on a new airport building for the north and south of the island, which will give you more of a reason to come back to madeira, because it will make it feel like you really are in the madeira island area. to give you a bit of an idea of what the airport will look like, the image below is a rough working draft of what it will look like, and we hope it will give you an idea of what to expect when we release it. there are a few new objects as well as a few new buildings we are working on. madeira also has a new cai, which has been improved for us, along with some new sounds, we have also added a new taxiway, which can be seen from the runway, and there is also a new airfield lighting system, and a new terrain model for the runway and taxiway, which will allow you to have great flying experiences on this island. all of the work we have done with madeira has been in order to make it one of the most challenging islands you will ever fly on, especially the runway and the taxiway. so the next time you go to the madeira, make sure you book it, and fly it!
