
Malankara Orthodox Wedding Songs 13

MASS Mass is a very important Orthodox Christian sacrament. It is not only the process by which the sacraments (baptism, confirmation and the Eucharist) are made available to all Orthodox believers, it also is an important part of the worship of the Orthodox Church. The Orthodox believe that a Trinitarian God is present in all things and that since the Incarnation of Christ, the Son of God and Son of the Virgin Mary, there is no greater expression of communion and unity between God and mankind than the Eucharist. It is through the Eucharist that God has revealed His love to and communed with man. MASS We encourage you to create an unforgettable experience for your wedding party. There is nothing more traditional than choosing a wedding service with your spouse-to-be. Together, you can come up with an impressive ceremony that will be cherished for a lifetime. Choose a venue that best fits you and your family's needs. Here are two ways to celebrate your wedding. Choose Between a Ceremony that is Simple and Easy Choosing a simple wedding with a minister and a few of your own wedding party is a perfect way to start off your wedding and create a lasting memory of your special day. You could then hold a simple reception at your home after the ceremony. Or, start with a small ceremony and hold your reception at your home. A wedding with your family and friends In honor of your family and friends, a wedding ceremony in a church and a reception at a celebration venue is an ideal combination. You could have your ceremony at one of our Orthodox churches, like St. Spyridon and the Holy Savior, or in the school gymnasium at our chapel. This ceremony can be followed by your reception at a favorite spot like the Cascade Grill or a special catering event at your home.
