Which brings us to the question: What makes a great hamburger? When we think about hamburgers, we often think about the hamburger—the bite-size patty of beef or chicken, topped with ketchup and mayonnaise, breaded and then deep-fried to create a crispy golden crust. Yet, there are thousands of other hamburgers around the world, with many variations and specialties that we barely know about. And what about meat burgers? How do they compare to meat patties in other cuisines? Hamburgers: Größe und Masse. Auf einen Blick: Alle Hamburger-Varianten, Größen, Kategorie und immer auf Rezept zu kaufen... The many hamburgers that remain off the mainstream menu. The hamburger has been the hallmark American snack food for almost a century. But for the last decade, a loose global trend of "best burgers" has swept the culinary world, with chefs, writers, and foodies from around the world competing to taste and judge the best burgers of the world. That trend has led to the emergence of an annual ranking of the world's greatest hamburgers, with at least 20 entries. Much of the interest has been driven by the arrival of the mobile app, The Burger News (formerly known as BurgerTracker), a new app that lets users track and share their experiences with the greatest burgers from around the world, as well as a number of other lists of popular food and drink items and bars. These rankings are always hotly contested,
