Heroes vs. Monsters is a 2007 American supernatural horror film. It was directed by James Wan and stars Landon Liboiron, John Landis, Michael Rosenbaum, Sam Neill, and Angela Bassett. It is based on the comic book Monsters by Greg Rucka and Mike Wieringo. The film is about two kids who confront their most terrifying fears in a reality they have created where monsters have overtaken the world. Plot A few days before his graduation, 17-year-old Travis has been told by his mother that a mysterious community of people called the Others live in a parallel world and are born with special gifts. Travis encounters one of them, Victor, who directs him to a board to find a friend who can help him with his dream to be a professional baseball player. When Travis and his mother are attacked by monsters, he and his friends learn that the Others are real. The Others are racing to destroy all the monsters because their existence will eventually lead to the death of the humans, but the monsters refuse to stop.
